Life and Legacy of Ruth Anderson Jenkins

Ruth Anderson Jenkins was born on August 29, 1929 in Savannah, GA to parents Joseph and Maggie Anderson. She was raised in Tatumville and educated in the Savannah Chatham County Public Schools.

She went on to marry Pickney Jenkins and they raised four children. She worked at Hunter Army Airfield in Savannah, Georgia and retired after over 20 years of service.

She went on to be a lifelong connoisseur of antiques and collectibles and that was her legacy and deep passion. She was a loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother.

She went on to eternal rest on September 5, 2024. Ruth was preceded in death by her siblings, Albert, Josephine, Leah, "Sunny Boy" and Esther Anderson.

She leaves to cherish her memory, a sister, Marilyn Furman; four children, Nellie (Jack) Sanders, Larry Jenkins, Gloria Powell, and Sharon Reynolds; 20 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, grand nieces and nephews and family and friends of Tatumville and Liberty City, Georgia.

In Loving Memory of Our Mother and Grandmother

It's hard to believe that you are no longer here.

Words cannot describe how this makes us feel.

You have passed on to the other side.

Though we wish you could be here with us.

You were a remarkable, dependable and loving woman.

You were the creator of our world.

You were one in a million to us. You made us laugh.

You made us smile. You were a companion and dear friend.

You were a wonderful woman from the beginning to the end.

*Love always,
Your Family*
