Just Another Mission Story Ryan Woehler

Thoughts From Today's Sermon

How often are we alert to our own material needs, yet blind to our spiritual need and the need of God's work? So long as we postpone the building of the Lord's spiritual house, so long will its completion be delayed. The little Old Testament book of Haggai has a very special message for those who have been called by God to rebuild the temple. But the concern is not only about the physical building, but also a spiritual one. Haggai's message is for the builders to renewed courage in the Lord, renewed holiness of life, and renewed faith in God who controls the future.

Mission Statement

We accept the ministry given to us by God: to bring the healing power of Jesus' love to people, and to provide a nurturing place to build a friendship with Him.

Welcome

A heart felt welcome to our church family and guests on this beautiful Sabbath morning! We are delighted to have yet another opportunity to come together in God's presence. We have every reason to be here, to praise and worship the only One who is deserving of our adoration. May we all find in Christ our heart's desire, and in our song, our prayer, our listening and our fellowship, the transformation of His amazing grace.

A fellowship meal with our guests in mind has been planned for immediately following the worship service this morning. This is an opportunity to get better acquainted and enjoy the love that God has put in our hearts for one another. Everyone is welcome!
