Hector Rene Lozano Hernández was born on January 6, 1985, in Chihuahua, Chihuahua, México, the son of Maria Hernández and Manuel Lozano and brother of Andrea Lozano Hernández and Esteban Lozano.

He received his primary education in México and then moved to Willmar, Minnesota where he continued with his education. He loved to cook and listen to music on his alone time. He also loved watching his dogs and chilling with them in the backyard. He was a loving son, brother and caring person to everyone around him. A very down to earth guy who was at everyone's service when able to help. Hector was heartbroken with the death of his child, grandparents and uncle whom he saw as a father yet carried a smile and did all in his hands to cheer everyone up.

He is survived by family in Mexico and the U.S.
