Our WARRIOR

Antwanne J. Largent

Antwanne Jaron Largent was born May 14, 1980, the youngest of three sons to Mr. & Mrs. Charles and Katie Largent. Antwanne attended Washington School of Art & Design, and Savannah State University. Antwanne also had a love for Photography. His grandmother Willie Bell Sims, Uncle Harold Kirkland, Aunts Laura Sims and Carol Nichols, all preceded him in death.

“What you leave behind is not what is engraved in stone monuments, but what is woven into the lives of others.”

Pericles

On Saturday April 24, 2021, after a yearlong fight following a motorcycle accident, our Warrior answered God’s call with his mother at his bedside.

Antwanne leaves many charitable memories with his daughter Lailah Imya-Milan Metallo Largent, his parents Mr. & Mrs. Charles and Katie Largent. His two brothers, Andre Largent (Sonoyia), and Jamel Kirkland, one sister Patricia Dennis (Jerome). Three uncles William Kirkland (Denise), Richard Largent (Carol), and Terry Largent (Sandra). Ten aunts Shirley Kirkland, Beverly Small, Linda Greene, Harriett Gadson, Denise Sims, Melonie Sims, Laurie Largent, Lynn Largent, and Dorothy Dula. Goddaughter Nefra T Payne, three nieces, five nephews, 21 first cousins, a host of second cousins, other family members, and friends.

“Do not lament the death of a warrior on the battlefield.
As those who sacrifice their life in the war are honored in Heaven.”

I met a King once
no man could be tougher
I met a King once
who let no one suffer
I met a King once
whose light blinded doubters
I met a King once
whose might silenced shouters
I met a King once
whose will was hard to bend
I met a King once
that knew no strangers, only friends
I met a King once
with a heart like no other
I met a King once
that King is my brother
- André Largent
