

When Tomorrow Starts

By David M Romano

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me, too

When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

But when I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne

He said, "This is eternity and all I promised you Today, for life on earth is done
But here it starts a new

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last
And since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past."

So when tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.

Acknowledgement

The family of the late Mr. Nathaniel Tinch gratefully acknowledges, with sincere appreciation, all the kind acts of sympathy during their bereavement.

Our loss did not allow us to walk smooth paths nor bear an easy load, but with your prayers, cards, flowers, food, and calls, we found strength and fortitude to climb the rock-strewn road. You gave us such courage and support that we did not scale the hardest peaks alone.

Unselfishly, you helped us transform every stumbling block into a stepping stone. For these we are very grateful and say thanks.

Reflections of Life

Mr. Nathaniel Tinch was born in Terrell County, Dawson, Gam, on March 20, 1968. Welcoming him to the world was his mother, Mary Lizzie Lyles, aka Mae Lizzie.

Nathaniel received his education in the Dougherty County School System. Throughout his life, he loved family, fishing, music, and playing cards. Most of all, he loved his mother, brothers, sisters, nieces, great-nieces, and nephews. He had a great-niece he loved as his own, Talia Tinch.

On Friday, March 18, 2022, Nathaniel departed from his earthly place of rest at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital in Albany, Georgia. He was preceded in death by his father, Jimmy Lee Clark, and a nephew.

Nathaniel leaves to cherish his precious memories: a loving mother, Mary Lizzie Lyles; two sisters, Mattie Tinch of Dawson, Georgia, and Gloria Lyles of Albany, Georgia; eight brothers, Joseph Hughey, Raymond Daniel, Willie Lyles, Jr., Howard Tinch, and Willie James Tinch, all of Albany, Georgia, and Milton Daniel, Frank Clark, Calvin Clark, all of Dawson, Georgia; a special friend, Norman Smith and family; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and sorrowing friends.

COMMITAL RITUAL

His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away
His journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets;
This earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today,
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched, for nothing loved is ever lost,
and he was loved so much.
