

In Loving Memory

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We acknowledge with sincere appreciation the many kind expressions of sympathy extended to us during this most difficult time as well as the prayers and other acts of love and kindness. We give a very special thanks to Reverend Jeffrey Simms and the First Baptist Church family, and the ICU staff of Wilson Memorial Hospital. May God richly bless everyone who came out to share in the celebration of life of Sherrell.

REFLECTIONS

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven

A time to be born

Sherrell Marquhn Jacobs was born to Johnnie and Gwendolyn Brewington Jacobs on December 17, 1981

And a time to die

She departed her earthly journey on October 2, 2024.

A time to plant

She attended the Goldsboro City Schools and was a 2000 graduate of Goldsboro High School. Sherrell attended Wayne Community College and was employed for several years with the United States Postal Service.

A time to love

Sherrell cared for her mother for many years as she endured health challenges. She cherished her son Ky’Juan as he grew to become a man.
Sherrell loved to ride horses and was a member of the M and K Ranch Saddle Club for many years. She was also an excellent driver and could take you anywhere you needed to go from New York to South Carolina.
Her only fear was of crossing high bridges when driving. She was a lover of fashion, especially different hair accessories and cherished her pets, the late Gizmo and the still barking Jack Russell Chihuahua mix, Prince. Royal blue was her favorite color, which reflected the Queen that she was.

A time to heal and a time to build up.

Sherrell faced health challenges for many years of her life but sought the Lord and committed her life to Christ. Her and her son Ky’Juan were both baptized on the same day at First Baptist, Lucama on November 9, 2014.
In her last days in the ICU at Wilson Memorial Hospital she ministered to many of the medical staffs and would pray with them.

A time to mourn

Sherrell was predeceased in death by her mother, Gwendolyn Brewington Jacobs. Sherrell leaves to mourn her passing, her cherished son, Ky’Juan Jacobs; father, Johnnie Jacobs of the home; one great aunt, Earlene Bunn of Monroe, NC; three uncles, Thurman Pearce (Neil) of Wilson, NC, Ranzo Pearce (Maggie) of Kenly, NC, and Royal Ray Dawson of Charlotte NC; two aunts, Tina Dawson, of Virginia and Faye Viney of Goldsboro; a devoted Godmother, Natarlin Best of Rocky Mount, NC; Annette Belton, a family friend; and a host of other relatives and friends.
