

He Only Takes The Best

God saw he was getting tired,
 And a cure was not to be,
 So he put his arms around him,
 And whispered "Come with me",
 With tearful eyes we watched him suffer,
 And saw him fade away,
 Although we love him dearly,
 We could not make him stay,
 A golden heart stopped beating,
 Hard working hands to rest,
 God broke our hearts to prove to us,
 He only takes the best,
 Although his heart stopped beating,
 His love will always remain,
 His absence puts upon our hearts,
 A very heavy strain,
 For now he is in a place of everlasting rest,
 We just have to understand that God,
 He only takes the best

Obituary

Leon Quilloin, a native of Savannah, Georgia was born to Mr. Herman Quilloin, Sr. and Mrs. Mable Quilloin on September 27, 1936 and was reared by his loving mother who became Mrs. Mable Dawson and her husband, Mr. Josh Dawson. They all preceded Leon into eternity. Additionally, Leon was preceded to eternity by his two brothers, Herman Quilloin, Jr. and Donell Dawson.

Leon received his primary education at St. Benedict Catholic School and graduated from St. Pius High School in Savannah, Georgia. Leon became a prominent entrepreneur and businessman in the community. His real estate holdings were vast, he was the proprietor on Leon's Lounge and later a distinguished building contractor. He was an outstanding life member of the NAACP. However, the most important facet of Leon's life is that he became a Christian and devoted his life to helping others. During the final years of his life, he was a member of First Tabernacle Baptist Church in Savannah, Georgia where he was rewarded for being a faithful Deacon under the leadership of Pastor Andre J. Osborne.

On Tuesday, October 12, 2021, Leon answered the Master's call and peacefully entered eternal rest.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his last sibling, Commissioner Carolyn O. Coleman of Pleasant Garden, NC; children, Darrell Walcott (Angela) of Atlanta, GA, Octavia Williams of Savannah, GA, Shelia Q. Campfield of Jacksonville, FL, Leon W. Quilloin, Jr. of Savannah, GA, and Moesha Quilloin of Savannah, GA; several grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and many friends.
