

It's Not Over

Even though my soul has left my mortal body,
I am now a part of the world's essence.

I am part of the wind
that breezes through your hair,
the mist of the rain
that parades down from the sky,
the rays of the sun
that shines above.

When you rise in the morning
until you lay your head
down to sleep,
you'll know and feel
that I'm forever in your world.

My physical time is at its end
but my spiritual aura is timeless.

This is a new beginning.

It's not over.....

Obituary

Mildred Campbell, affectionately called “Mom Mom,” passed away on May 8, 2023. She was the first of five born to Ola Mae and John L. Sullivan on June 23, 1930, in Greenville, South Carolina.

Her family moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, when she was a young girl, and she graduated from Germantown High School in Philadelphia.

Mildred married Reverend Percy M. Campbell and had two children, Percy Jr. and Bernadette. Mildred worked at the Defense Personnel Support Center for almost forty years starting as a key punch operator and worked her way up to a Supervisor of Transportation. She was awarded many certificates of honor for her work. She enjoyed fashion and singing with the family and other groups.

Mildred is survived by her daughter, Bernadette; sister, Eliza; brother, John L.; grandchildren, Stacey, Donnie, Cowan, Bryant, and Ruthie; nine great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
