In Loving Memory

You haven't really lost your Mother, though you've said the last goodbyes, though there's heartbreak in the parting -- No one's Mother really dies! If you love to hear the old songs for the memories they bring, it's because you had a Mother who taught your heart to sing! When you stop to help a neighbor, search your heart and you will find it's because you had a Mother who taught you to be kind. If you go to church when weary seeking God to guide your way, it's because you had a Mother who taught you how to pray. No, you haven't lost your Mother though you've said your last goodbyes. Through your thoughts and deeds she's living -- No one's Mother really dies.
