Obituary

Angelo Keith Everette was born on February 20th, 1963, to the late Charlie & Barbara Jean Matthews. He attended Princeton Schools and graduated in 1982. Keith attended Cedar Grove DOC at an early age and later joined Corner Stone Church and became a Pastoral Adjutant. He worked many years in construction and was nicknamed the “jack of all trades.” Keith was well-known in the Princeton community and was willing to give anyone a helping hand, he was also a phenomenal cook. Affectionately known as “Cootie” to family and friends. He will be missed by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his parents, brother; Ricky Everette, sister; Angela Malinda Everette, Maternal and paternal grandparents, and a host of cousins, aunts, and uncles.

He leaves to cherish his memories; one daughter, Becca Pierce (he affectionally called her Kelly); three grandchildren; Azyon Pierce, Jada Johnson, and Gia Johnson. Three brothers; Ray Jacobs, Charlie Matthews, and Sherrod Everette. One Sister; Linda Jacobs, Two Aunts: Hazel Rawlings and Martha Herring and one special great niece; Nikkiya Everette, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
