

Lloyd Elmo Eblen known to most as “Radar” died on Saturday, April 13, 2019. He was born on January 26, 1961 in Alexandria, Minnesota the son of Marvin and Lillian (Albee) Eblen. Radar grew up in the Forada area and attended country school in Forada and went to Alexandria High School.

As a young man he worked for several contractors driving truck and later on owned his own trucking service. Radar also did small engine repair, welding and snowplowing. He was a mechanical genius making his own inventions and was a “Mr Fix It” for family and friends.

Radar loved to go ice fishing, deer hunting, especially up north with his buddies. He also enjoyed riding his dirt bike and motorcycle.

He is survived by his six brothers and sisters: Elmo, Billy, Debbie (Dan) Bengtson, Gail (Rod) Massmann, Cindy (Pete) Stormo, Lee (Sarah); several nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends: Lana Leedahl and Scott Morton.

He was preceded in death by his parents and nephew, Zachary.

Fisherman's Prayer

*God grant that I may
Live to fish,
Until my dying day,
And when it comes
To my last cast,
I then most humbly pray,
When in the Lord's
Safe landing net,
I'm peacefully asleep,
That in his mercy I be judged,
As big enough to keep.*
