Memories

Surrounded by his loving family, Terry David Schmidt, 58, passed away peacefully at Hutchinson Regional Medical Center on June, 28, 2024. Terry was born August 13, 1965, at McPherson Memorial Hospital in McPherson, Kansas to Beauferd and DeAnn (Williams) Schmidt.

Terry grew up on a farm South of Canton, Kansas and attended McPherson High School and graduated in 1983. Terry was the middle of three children and enjoyed being ornery with his older brother Tony and younger brother Heath. When he and his brothers weren't being mischievous, Terry loved playing baseball, football, wrestling, golf and softball. He also attended countless concerts, was an avid Denver Broncos fan attending multiple games with friends, enjoyed skiing, riding dirt bikes, motorcycles, and weight lifting.

He met his wife, Cheryl (Becker) Schmidt, dragging main in 1987. They were united in marriage on May 7th, 1994 at First Mennonite Church and were happily married 30 years. They welcomed their daughters, Paige in January 1998 and Madison in September 1999. Although challenging at times, Terry loved being a girl dad.

Terry had various jobs growing up. He worked as a cook, a machinist and later became self-employed in the oil and gas industry as an operator and producer.

Over the years, Terry earned himself multiple nicknames ranging from "Bone," "Terr-Bear," "T," to "Rad Dad." He also had quite the personality. Not only was he ornery, competitive, talkative, and stubborn, he was also tender hearted, caring, a deep thinker, and wanted things done right.

Terry treated others like family; genuinely caring about how they were doing, relating to them, and oftentimes putting their needs above his own. He would talk for hours (yes, hours) on the phone in his beloved rocking chair and porch swing, always keeping up to date and never missing out on what was going on - along with his interests and friends too.

Survivors include his loving wife, Cheryl; daughters, Paige Burdick (Matthew) of Wichita, KS and Madison Schmidt of Wichita, KS; mother, DeAnn Decker (Larry) of Galva, KS; brothers, Tony Schmidt (Tiffany) of McPherson, KS and Heath Schmidt (Leesa) of Galva, KS; mother-in-law, Ruby Becker of Moundridge, KS; brother-in-law, Gene Becker (Brenda) of Wichita, KS; nephews and niece, Sam Schmidt, Syllas Schmidt, Kayley Cox (Kody), Caleb Schmidt (Lindsey), and Tyler Becker; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Beauferd Schmidt, father-in-law, Merle Becker, and grandparents, Fred & Tennie Williams and David & Dena Schmidt.
