Every leaf in the forest
Lays down its life in its season
As beautifully as it was taken up.*

Howard Yeager, 78, of Center, ND, passed away October 12, 2021, at Elm Crest Manor in New Salem.

Howard was born January 5, 1943, in Hazen, ND to Elmer and Snowflake (Reineke) Yeager. He was raised and educated in the Center, ND area. On June 12, 1964, Howard married Henrietta Bargmann in Hannover, ND. They resided in Center for 57 years. Howard became a resident of Elm Crest Manor in New Salem in March 2020.

As a young man, Howard worked construction at local power plants and was hired by Minnkota Power at the Milton R. Young Station in Center. He worked there as a power plant operator for 30 years until his retirement.

Howard enjoyed hunting, fishing, playing cards with friends, and spending time with his great nephews and nieces. He also enjoyed traveling with Henrietta to Deadwood, SD, an Alaska trip for their 50th wedding anniversary, and visiting his son, Cordell, and daughter-in-law, Ann-Marie, in Colorado.

He is survived by his wife, Henrietta, Center; his son, Cordell, and daughter-in-law, Ann-Marie, Loveland, CO; one brother, Don (Karen) Yeager, Maple Grove, MN; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Herbert (Phyllis) Bargmann, Delbert (Audrey) Bargmann, Loretta (Wayne) Beckman, and Robert (Pam) Bargmann; numerous nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews.

Howard was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Norman Yeager; sister-in-law, Elaine Yeager; brother-in-law, Gilbert Bargmann; and sister-in-law, Joyce Yeager.
