

Pablo Rodriguez was born on February 2, 1960, in San Juan, Texas, the son of Guadalupe Sr. and Benita (Luna) Rodriguez. He grew up in San Juan and Alamo, Texas and was baptized in the Methodist faith. While living in Texas, Pablo met Nora. They spent 13 years together and were blessed with three children. On November 4, 2004, Pablo was married to Kristin. They made their home in Willmar and were later divorced. He worked in the maintenance departments at K-Mart and Walmart. When Pablo was in his 40's, he became disabled with back injuries and was no longer able to work.

Pablo enjoyed fishing (especially for catfish), collecting classic toy cars, watching WWE wrestling, attending area garage sales, being an avid fan of the Minnesota Vikings and Dallas Cowboys, and traveling to Texas to visit family. He will be best remembered for his great sense of sarcastic humor and love for his family.

He is survived by his four children, Ilene (and Gonzalo) Tizapan, Pablo Rodriguez Jr., Juan Pablo "JP" Rodriguez, and Noah Rodrigue; thirteen grandchildren; two sisters, Juanita (and Joe) Burch and Mary Rodriguez; one brother, David Rodriguez; and special friend, Armando Franco, besides other relatives and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two sisters, Julia and Rosa; and two brothers, Vicente and Guadalupe Jr.

Celebrating the Life of

The Fisherman's Prayer

God grant that I may live to fish until my dying day.

And when it comes to my last cast

I then most humbly pray

When in the Lord's safe landing net

I am peacefully asleep,

That in His mercy I be judged

As big enough to keep.
