

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me,
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles, when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo,
Whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times, & bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, To dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When my life is done.*

Love Stephanie

Stephanie Downing

Stephanie L. Downing was born on April 25, 1966 to the late Marietta Downing and James Jones. Her Nickname was “Shaggy”.

She graduated from Atlantic City High School. She was employed in Security at the Inlet Towers (Housing Authority). Stephanie was full of Life, and she was full of laughter (funny).

Stephanie loved hanging out with her two daughters and having sleepovers with her Grandkids. She enjoyed family gatherings, and always enjoyed her sister’s spaghetti.

She leaves to cherish her memories, three (3) children, Marcia Drummond, Mark Drummond and Daron Downing; three (3) sisters, Jennifer Gayle (Larry), Jamie Snowden (Scott) and Regina Grant; one (1) brother, Tyrone Downing; nine (9) grandchildren, Asaliyah, Javion, Naveah, Emory, Ibn Jr., Mark III, Malaysia, Malaylazay, and MaZaylah. Tons of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and people who will miss her.

Stephanie is predeceased by her oldest daughter, Marcitta Freeman; Sister Rochelle Downing; grandson Gerold Freeman, Jr. and brother, Gregory Stewart.

A Letter to My Mom

MOM, Today I realized why you always told me to be strong. You knew that one day I would need the strength to bear the loss of losing you. You were not only my mother but also my best friend. You had always supported me, no matter what craziness I had up my sleeve. You had my back. I miss you every day. You have always fulfilled my every need. You were the best mom in my eyes. I miss everything about you..

Love always, Marcia.

“ You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived. -

A collection of your memories,
Precious times enjoyed together;

Keepsakes
of the Heart

That remain with us forever.
