

Remember Me

The day God called you home,
You never said I'm leaving you,
You never said Goodbye
And only God knew why.
So many memories of you,
So many memories we shared.
Love alone couldn't keep you,
And we never thought you wouldn't be there.
In life we love you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold the sweetest place,
That no one else can feel.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
Because we knew you were safe with the Father
The day God called you home.

- OBITUARY -

Mrs. Tawanda Renee Israel,

daughter of the late James Joseph Cameron and Geraldine Speight, was born on October 29, 1965 in Newark, New Jersey. God in His infinite wisdom and unfailing love called her home to her eternal rest on July 6, 2023. Along with her parents she was preceded in death by Timothy Cameron and Tony Cameron.

At an early age, Tawanda's family moved to Wilson County, North Carolina. It was here that she received her formative education from the Wilson County Public School System. She attended Ralph L. Fike High School in Wilson where she received her high school diploma. Immediately following graduation, Tawanda entered the work force. She was employed with Britt Haven Nursing Facility. After working there for a long period of time, she would begin working for BB&T (Now Truist). In her free time, she enjoyed many different activities. Tawanda was a true craftsman. She was very gifted with her hands. Tawanda enjoyed painting, sewing, interior decorating and her all-time favorite, SHOPPING!

Believing in the power of God and the written word of God, Tawanda gave her life to the Lord willingly. After making this decision, she united with the ministries and fellowship of Suggs Christian Temple Free Will Baptist Church in Wilson, North Carolina under the leadership of Bishop Percell Cooper. Tawanda was a faithful and dependable member of her church and was always wanting to make sure the needs of the church are taken care of. She was very kind and loving. Tawanda would minister the word of God and read the Bible to those in nursing homes or even those who just wanted the word. A kind and faithful soldier has gone from labor to reward.

Loving and lasting memories are left to be cherished by her husband, Donald Israel; two loving daughters, Christie Cameron, and Tenisha Simmons; one granddaughter, La'Mya Cameron of Wilson, NC; five sisters, Theresa Brewington, Latonia Edwards, Telecia Winstead, Andrella Farmer, and Ebony Lewis; two brothers, William Turner, and Andrew Farmer; a very, very special friend "JOE", who was always there when Tawanda needed him; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and friends.
