

Louise Maroon Harris

Louise Maroon Harris, 88 of Bowling Green died Thursday, June 7, 2012 at the Hospice Center of Southern KY. The Macon, GA native was born November 23, 1923. She was the last of eight children from Beirut Lebanon born to the late Tony Maroon and Mamie Kouri Maroon. Louise was married to Fred T. Harris for 46 years who preceded her to heaven in 1994. Louise was the captain for the cheerleaders for the University of Miami from 1944-1947. "Orange, green and white, fight, fight, fight--go Miami". The folds at Morningside Assisted Living will miss their cheerleader. Louise was a retired Brevard County School Teacher beginning in 1965, and lovingly remembered by all for her 26 years of service.

Survivors include four children: Ron Harris, Sharon Harris Massa (Mark), Ricky Harris (Darnell) and Laura Harris Seguna (George). eight grandchildren, Mark Aaron Massa, Lana Harris Watson (Joshua), Seth Massa, Mandy Harris Bouge (Doug), Rick Massa (Megan), Nick Seguna, Christian Seguna and Gloria Seguna; two great grandchildren, Liam Watson and Wren Nazira Watson and her best friend Dorothy.

Services will be held in Melbourne, FL local arrangements by Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel

Send Condolence