ALBERTA CONFERENCE

INTERNAL FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 16, 2021

Dear Alberta Conference Employees:

Earlier this morning, Alberta Conference Administration received notification from the Vegreville RCMP that they were issuing a national press release concerning our former employee, Brad Dahr, later today, Friday, April 16, 2021.

You may read one of the news releases here:

Alberta RCMP charge a male for sexual offences against children and are seeking possible additional victims or witnesses | Royal Canadian Mounted Police \(rcmp-grc.gc.ca\)

The Alberta Conference continues to cooperate with the authorities concerning this investigation. Brad Dahr has not been an employee of the Alberta Conference since November 1, 2020.

Many of you may receive questions from your local church or community members, including the media. Please direct all related inquiries to Eric Ollila, Communication Director for the Alberta Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
