

Acknowledgement

The family of Rise C. Harris would like to thank our many friends for all your kind expressions of sympathy and love shown in our time of sorrow. May God bless you and keep you.

God Saw You

*God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you,
and whispered, "Come to me".
You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best
And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again*

~ Reflections of Her Life ~

Rise Harris was born February 25, 1958 to the union of Leon Harris, Jr. and Lonnie B. (King) Harris. She was the fifth of six children.

Rise accepted Christ at an early age. She graduated from Southeast High School in Kansas City, Missouri in 1976. She later took college courses at Penn Valley.

Rise always enjoyed traveling to Lexington as a child to visit grandparents, cousins, and aunts. She later moved from Kansas City to Lexington to be closer to her family and friends.

Shortly after getting settled into Lexington, she was hired at the local Kentucky Fried Chicken (KFC). Rise worked at KFC for several years before becoming employed by Higginsville Rehabilitation Center. She also maintained a part-time job at Places (a local retail store in Lexington). Rise was always a hard worker and was dedicated to her work. She went on to retire from the Rehabilitation Center in Higginsville, Missouri.

Rise's greatest joy was helping others. She loved spending time with family and friends. She never met a stranger. Her radiant smile and loving ways brought joy to all who knew her. Rise was very caring and loving. Anyone who had the opportunity to be loved by Rise, knew they were truly loved.

Rise answered the Master's call on Friday, March 4, 2022. Her parents, Leon Harris, Jr., and Lonnie B. Spearman; stepfather, Mancy Spearman; two sisters, Shelia Harris and Sharon Harris; two brothers, Leon Harris III and David Spearman; an uncle, James A. Hanner; three nephews, Christopher Harris, Jr., Bradley Roach and Damon Harris; and a cousin, Randie Ann Smith all preceded her in death.

Rise leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter, Kiesha R. Harris; grandmother, Helene Owens; four sisters, Wilma J. Harris, Margaret Spearman, Etheline Hill and Earline Walker; three brothers, Christopher A. Harris (Kecia), Randy L. Spearman, and Derrick Spearman; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and other family and friends.
