

Remembering Rosella

On November 21, 2022, Rose watched the sun rise from Glory, in the presence of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Rose was born on November 3, 1932, to the late Homer C. and Luttie Moore Ford in Paron, Arkansas, and attended Paron and Fountain Lake (Hot Springs) schools.

Throughout her life she worked a variety of jobs including sawmill cook, factory assembly line, retail sales, door to door sales, and for most of her career, in sales of pre-need funeral arrangements and burial markers. She regularly won sales awards and was often enlisted as a trainer or manager.

Rose was married to Rev. Luther Oglesby for 56 years, and supported his gospel ministry for 48 years, from his Salvation until his death. Throughout his ministry and beyond, she taught Sunday School, mentored Christian women, and hosted countless visiting ministers and evangelists.

Rose was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Rev. Luther Oglesby, her sisters, Othelda Grace, Georgetta Hester, and Willie Jeff Rickard.

She leaves behind her children, Carlos Oglesby, Vickie Leatherwood, Regina (Malcolm) Terrell, Phillip Oglesby of Quitman, Tommy (Risa) Oglesby of Mount Pleasant, TX, and John (Rhonda) Oglesby of Wake Forest, NC; as well as her seven grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, many nieces, nephews, loved ones, and friends.

Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised. - Proverbs 31:30

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell
in the house of the Lord
forever.
