JERMEL BARNES

son of Howard Lee Barnes and Marjorie Mangum, was born March 6, 1987 in Wilson, North Carolina. Jermel or Mel as he was affectionately called, entered eternal rest on Thursday, August 11, 2022. His humble and calm spirit was contagious. No matter what, he would always say "I'm alright." His children and family meant the world to him. If he told you he loved you, then he showed you. He would always let you know how much you meant to him. Mel was one of the Good Guys. If you were around him, then you saw something special in him. He received his GED at Wilson Technical Community College. He was employed at DHL until his health declined.

Preceding him in death were his grandmothers, Mary Francis McDowell-Mangum and Thayin Barnes; his grandfathers, Jesse Barnes and William "Sony" Mangum; and two special cousins, Marques Mangum and Martez Barnes.

Loving and lasting memories are forever cherished by his mother, Marjorie Mangum; his father, Howard Lee Barnes (Shirley); six children, Keyante Barnes, Jaylen Barnes, Uriah Mallory, Taliyah Barnes, Talaiya Barnes, and Nikko Barnes; the mother of his children, Kimberly Mallory; one sister, Shawnda Dowell (Charles); one brother, Laquail Swinson; seven aunts, Angela Barnes, Anne Barnes, Brenda Mangum, Deborah Williams (Milton), Frances Mangum, Janniece Savage, and Vera Mangum-Funderburk; seven uncles, Jesse Barnes Jr. (Carrie), Eric Barnes, Kelvin Mangum, James Mangum (Katie), and William Mangum, Jr. (Audrey), Ira Mangum (Bernadette), and Charles Mangum; one niece, Amir Tomlin; one nephew, Zhakir Farmer; a host of cousins, including two special ones, Demond "Fish" Mangum and Jasmine Barnes; a host of family members and friends including his Raleigh North and TPG Family and a special friend, Alphonso Everette.

Family tree

A limb has fallen from the family tree
I hear a voice that whispers,
'Grieve not for me'

Remember the best times,
The laughter, the songs

The good I lived while I was strong
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remembering all...how I was truly blessed
Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall
I will miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin
Until that fine day we're together again.

ALWAYS AND FOREVER, Mel
