

To My Sister

*I'm blessed to call you sister,
 I also call you friend;
 You've loved me unconditionally,
 And stood through thick and thin.
 You've shared my joys and sorrows,
 My laughter and my tears.
 You've been my inspiration,
 As we grew up through the years.
 When we were little children
 We laughed and played together;
 Then growing up you stood by me,
 Through good and stormy weather.
 There's something God has given us,
 That's more than family;
 He's placed a love for you, my sister,
 Deep down in the heart of me.*

Angie Phinelle Chapman

Daughter of the late Johnny Taylor and Sharon Taylor, was born November 20, 1976 in Wilson County, North Carolina. Her earthly life ended on Friday, November 18, 2022 as she peacefully transitioned to her heavenly home. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her nephew, Mar'Qorce Atkinson. Angie was reared in Wilson and received her education from the Wilson County Public School System where she attended Ralph L. Fike High School. Entering the workforce, she was employed by Export Tobacco Company, Tobacco Processors, the Waffle House and Standard Commercial.

Loving, kind, and devoted, Angie loved life as she shared many special times with her nieces and nephews who were her pride and joy. She loved them with her whole heart and always told them that she loved them. Her compassionate spirit extended to her godchildren whom she loved as if they were her own. One of her favorite sayings was "Never Say Goodbye...It's I Will See You Later"! Angie was the kind of person who spoke what was on her mind, she did not hold back. Her favorite pastime was listening to music with her family and friends. She loved to listen to Yolanda Adams recording, "I'm Gonna Be Ready". Believing in the love of God, she willingly dedicated her life to Him. She united with the fellowship and ministries at KUI under the Christian leadership of Pastor Stanley Artis where she worshipped, served, and carried out the spirit of God's word. A dear beloved heart is now at rest to always be remembered with joy and adoration.

Precious and lasting memories are forever cherished by her two sisters, Pamela Ruffin (Randy) and Delorse Goode (Herbert) of Wilson, NC; two brothers, Maurice Chapman (Terry) of Lucama, NC, and Michael Chapman of Wilson, NC; six aunts, Patricia Sutton (Amos), Yvonne Williams (Dennis) of Lucama, NC, Brenda King, and Shirley Bryant of Wilson, NC, Evangelist Emma Lamas and Evangelist Ann Chapman of Rocky Mount, NC; six uncles, Dennis Taylor, Danny Taylor, Kenneth Taylor of Lucama, NC, Eugene Taylor (Yvonne) of Saratoga, NC, James Earl Taylor of Oceanside, CA and William Barfield of Wilson, NC; four godchildren, Dalayah Taylor, Kemari Pender, Serenity Bynum Pender, and Tra'Cauris Cooper; a special cousin/sister/caregiver, Latoga Artis; special nephew and niece, Jonathan Chapman, Carla Draughn; special cousins, Demarcus Sutton, Courtney Taylor and Deontae Taylor and the Beacon Pointe Family; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends including a special friend, Randy Jones.

Angie

*You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
A million times I needed you
A million times I cried,
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still,
In my heart I hold a place
That only you can fill.
It broke my heart to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
As part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*
