

Matt was born in Breckenridge, MN, on June 14, 1975, to Lonnie and Karen (Mikkelson) Broberg, the third of four sons. Matt was a past member of First Baptist Church, made a confession of faith and was baptized. He graduated from Wahpeton High School and then attended the North Dakota State College of Science where he obtained an associate's degree. After graduating college, Matt worked at the University of Minnesota. He was so proud he worked for a great institution that he admired. After spending some time in Atlanta, he returned to the Twin Cities and worked for Green Stuff where he loved being part of a great team.

On June 27th, 2003, he married Toby Singsaas, and together they had two beautiful children, Luke and Brooklyn. Matt's face lit up when you asked about his kids. He was so proud of them and loved them so much.

Matt wore many titles: dad, brother, son, friend, uncle, coach, and "Boris" to many of his friends. He loved to coach Luke's baseball teams and cheer Brooklyn on in basketball and in swimming. Matt loved most sports and you could often find him watching and cheering for his favorite teams. In high school, Matt played baseball for the American Legion as a pitcher and third baseman. He also played hockey and was a talented musician, playing trumpet in the band, including performing the National Anthem at many hockey games. He enjoyed fishing and spending time at his cabin at the lake. He also loved to travel enjoying many vacations with his kids, friends, and family. Some of his most memorable travel was with his brothers during the Broberg families annual ski adventures. He was a quiet, private person and a hard worker. He was a friend to anyone who met him, loved meat raffles and had many lifelong friends. Matt could also be the life of the party with his big smile, witty sense of humor and a contagious laugh. He was loved and appreciated by all that knew him.

Surviving Matt are his children, Luke and Brooklyn Broberg; his parents, Lonnie and Karen; his brothers: Paul (Nicole), Charlie (Melissa), and Grant Broberg; and several nieces and nephews.

Preceding him in death were his grandparents.

*Jesus said, "Come unto me,
all ye that labor and are heavy laden,
and I will give you rest.
"Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me,
for I am meek and lowly in heart:
and you will find rest unto your souls.
"For my yoke is easy,
and my burden is light."*
