Oscar G. Brockett Golden Pen Award

Nomination Information

Oscar G. Brockett Golden Pen Award, sponsored by USITT and the Oscar G. Brockett Center for Theatre History and Criticism at the University of Texas - Austin, honors an outstanding publication in the field of design and production for the performing arts. The recipient of this award, first given in 1986, is the author of an outstanding, major, recent publication in the field of design and production for the performing arts.

The winning works are significant in the field of performing arts and are outstanding examples of one or more of the following:

- Scholarly research and critical thinking
- Presentation of the work and methodology of exceptional practitioners for theatrical arts and/or crafts
- Description of the methods, skills, and technology involved in creating works of theatre and/or crafts

Eligibility:

- Books are eligible for three-year period from the date of publication

Nominations Period: July 3, 2019 through August 1, 2019

- Nominations can be made at <http://www.usitt.org/goldenpen/>

Selection Process:

- No books are automatically carried forward from one year to the next. If a nominated book does not win the award, it must be nominated during the next nominations period.
- The author does not need to be a USITT member, but only USITT members may nominate books for consideration.
- The Oscar G. Brockett Golden Pen sub-committee will review all nominated books and recommend book(s) for recognition.
- The Publications Committee reviews sub-committee recommendations and determines the award winner.
- Recipients are honored April 1-4, 2020 at the Annual Conference & Stage Expo in Houston, Texas during the autograph session.
