

Eva Lucille Dabney, a beloved soul who touched the lives of many, passed away on July 15, 2024, in Gillette, Wyoming. She was born on November 10, 1934, in North Port, Nebraska, to John and Viola (Bricker) Middleswart. Eva was raised in the Seattle, Washington area and Arvada, Wyoming area. She married the love of her life, Fred R. Dabney, on November 29, 1952. Their bond stood strong for 45 beautiful years, during which they were blessed with seven children. Eva, beloved by many, was a warm and loving soul who found joy in family gatherings and cherished moments spent together. Her kind heart and gentle demeanor endeared her to everyone she met. Eva's love for camping, traveling, and crafting filled her days with happiness. She shared her passion for games like cribbage with those around her and always had a project in hand, whether it be sewing, knitting, or crocheting. Her presence brought light and cheer to all who knew her. In the hearts of her surviving family members, Eva leaves behind a legacy of love and devotion. She is deeply missed by her children Evelyn (Paul) Hendricks, Viola Rosebrook, Jody (Wayne) Porterfield, Judy (Clifford) Swinyer, Virgil (Sondra) Dabney, Mary (Mike) Rodgers; her daughter-in-law Valorie Dabney; as well as 16 grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren, and numerous great-great-grandchildren with another on the way. Fred Dabney's passing preceded hers along with their son John Dabney. Eva also joins her parents John and Viola Middleswart and a brother in eternal peace. Eva's presence illuminated the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her kindness and joy will be dearly missed but forever treasured in the hearts of those she leaves behind. The family is requesting that all memorials be made to the Arvada Ladies Club. Memorials and condolences can be sent in care of Gillette Memorial Chapel 210 West 5th Street, Gillette, WY 82716.

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.*

*Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the Love that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go.*

*For this journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me - but let me go.
