The church is a family, an Ohana. United by the universal recognition of Jesus Christ as our Savior, we are all brothers and sisters. So for a time, the Aiea Adventist Church was our home. Like every family, our church family is formed and reformed over time: as members are born, or die, they are adopted into our family, or leave our congregation as they are transferred to a different place and church. We have shared good times and bad, joys and sorrows; we have lightened each other's heavy loads. Together we have worshiped and praised God, together we prayed, we travel, studied the Bible, witnessed, and we ministered and shared the gospel in our city. Today, we have a heavy heart as we have to say "FAREWELL," see you later. My family and I, thank each member and visitor that we have met during our time in Hawaii. We thank God for the opportunity to come and live in this beautiful land and meet fascinating people. Please keep my family in your prayers as we transition to our new home and church in NYC. We will do the same, praying for you and your families. We will be praying as you search for a new pastor and for our beloved Aiea Church. May the good Lord give you peace and above all maintain the right spirit, keeping the faith in Jesus till He comes back again, to take us to our forever home. God bless you!
"Even so, come, Lord Jesus." Revelation 22:20
