Message of Encouragement: Kendra Carlson

I tend to be an overly responsible person. I take my responsibilities seriously, and also some that aren't mine. For instance, when I was a girl, my family relocated and failing to sell the house we left, it went into foreclosure. In my adult life, I had repeated dreams of going back to fix up and sell that house. Crazy, right? Being this responsible is a heavy burden and can even become painful.

It affects my ability to yoke up with Jesus too. I don't always think to ask His opinion or hand off stresses so I can discover the light burden He promised. Now that we can't see, hear or touch God, the easiest lie to believe is that we're alone. I think I swallowed this one whole because I hardly know what to do with a partner. Too often my life looks like I'm playing a clapping game or cat's cradle or leap frog by myself. It doesn't work. Never has; was never supposed to.

What takes bravery, is to reject that lie by looking into the nothing and believing when you reach out for Help, a hand takes yours. Even those who've felt everything was always up to them, can begin to believe that asking questions into the quiet isn't talking to yourself. And when we feel that Hand warm ours or an idea shows us the way, we'll start to realize the truth. We are not alone. Not alone at all.

Be strong and of good courage, do not fear nor be afraid of them; for the Lord your God, He is the One who goes with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you. Deut. 31:6

Last week the city of Lincoln changed its Covid 19 threat level back to Orange. This includes a statement that recommends groups of no more than 10 people meeting. Since our worship service attendance in the building has been above 10, the members voted Monday, July 13, to again suspend holding worship service in the building at this time. The feeling of the majority was that we need to do our best to follow safety guidelines for our members and for our community. We will return to worship in the building when the threat level lowers back to yellow.

CVA Due to Covid-19 the annual College View Academy Believers Banquet has been delayed and we have some amazing auction items that just shouldn't sit and wait for next year. You don't want to miss out on: a 7 day RV rental, horsemanship lessons for kids, family portraits, a $500 Union College Scholarship, vegetable egg rolls made by Becky Gustafson, a KC Chiefs light up sign, donuts for a CVA class of students and more! The auction ends on July 26 at 8pm. Auction Link: <https://www.32auctions.com/collegeviewacademy>

CVA The start of the school year is just around the corner. CVA is pleased to offer in person or online classes for students. Visit www.cvak12.org

Mission opportunity: Adventist Child India (ACI) has an urgent need for sponsors or donations. Give the children from Adventist families in India an education in our Adventist schools so they may share the gospel with those in their home villages. Pray about it and if willing to sponsor or donate, contact Charlene Binder (Goodwill Ambassador for ACI) at 402-489-1702 or email rdbinder42@gmail.com. I have several children's profiles assigned for me to find sponsors for. God bless!
