Jane's Advice about Life

*(taken from her book
Reflections from a Mother's Heart)*

Remember we are sons and daughters of God and he knows and loves us individually. We need to strengthen our faith and put our trust in Him.

Try to adopt a positive attitude. One often hear the phrase, "Have a good day" I think we need to change this to "Make it aa good day"

You are the only one that can decide how you will let others affect you

Be happy. Trials and disappointments come to all of us but what counts is how many times we get up and try again

If you want to forget your own troubles go do something for someone else

WE need to be willing to receive as well as to give

When life seems the darkest—there appears a silver lining

*Never leave God out of your plans—
Prayers are really heard and answered.*

When you think you can not go on —you do and you can
