

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away-

her journey's just begun,

life holds so many facets-

this earth is only one. . .

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears

in a place of warmth and comfort

where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing

that we could know today

how nothing but our sadness

can really pass away.

And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched. . .

for nothing loved is ever lost-

and she was loved so much.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

Deaconess Victoria Ayers

As beautiful as a rose to see, was her life she lived so gracefully. She made things precious by her touch; her selfless love lives on in each of us. The petals of her life fell one by one; each a gift of her heart till there were none. Yet her radiance blooms once again in fields of glory with no end.

Victoria Ayers was born on February 2, 1955, in Gary, Indiana to her parents, Carlton Ayers, Sr. and Alice M. Harris Ayers. She was the second child born in the family. She was raised surrounded by her brother, Carlton. As a child, Victoria loved playing outdoors and working in the garden. She and her brother, Carlton loved dancing and going to high school parties. They were known to "tear the house down."

Victoria received her formal education by graduating from Roosevelt High School located in Gary, Indiana. She furthered her education by attending Indiana University located in Bloomington, Indiana, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology.

On May 27, 1989, Victoria wed Robert Redd in the Little White Chapel in Las Vegas, Nevada. They first met while dining in Denver, Colorado. To this union, a son, Robert Brandon Redd was born. They enjoyed backyard bar-be-ques and planning birthday parties. She later wed, George Jackson on February 14, 1996, in Heritage Christian Center. They enjoyed Broncos football games and spending quality time together. Brandon as he is affectionately called, remembers all the many travel trips together which include California and the Garden of the Gods in Colorado Springs. He also remembers all the teachable moments they shared when she had him taste foods from her garden and she sharing with him her life experiences.

after many years of faithful and dedicated service.

A woman of faith and belief in the Lord, Victoria was a member of Heritage Christian Center in Aurora, Colorado. She joined the church under the pastoral leadership of the late Bishop Dennis Leonard. She was the leader of the Bookstore Ministry and she served her church and the Lord as a Deaconess. She loved her church and the fellowship shared with her church family. She had been a member for over thirty years.

Victoria was a fun-loving woman, who enjoyed life and those she encircled. In her free time, she enjoyed gardening, collecting Barbie dolls, faceting jewelry and working cross word puzzles. Her closest friends, Valerie Washington, Dorsella Broomfield, Linda Andrews, Kathy Marshall, and Anna Edward Jones, will miss the comraderies they all shared together and fact that she was a true and trusted friend. They will also miss her loving and giving spirit. Brittany, her daughter-in-law, fondly remembers the two of them sharing and praising the Lord during worship. She will miss the love and care they shared together and will forever cherish the memories. Victoria will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known this kind and wonderful woman.

To know Victoria was to love her.

By profession, Victoria was employed as a Revenue Officer for the Internal Revenue Service. She was a dedicated and faithful tax collector. She was hard-working and performed her duties with superior excellence. Her co-workers fondly remember her "power hour shopping" during her lunch break. Dillard's was her place to shop. She retired Victoria Ayers departed this life on December 3, 2020, in Aurora, Colorado. Those left to cherish her memory include her son, Robert Brandon (Brittany) Redd of Aurora, Colorado; her brother, Carlton (Corliss) Ayers of Merryville, Indiana; her grandson, Dominic Xavier Redd of Aurora, Colorado and a host of other relatives and many friends.
