Annette Lynne Farmer entered her eternal rest on January 12th 2024 at Johnston Health in Smithfield NC. She was born on December 31st 1965 in Smithfield NC to Annie Wright and the late Robert Baker.

Annette received her education at South Johnston HS in Benson NC, eventually going on to Johnston Community College where she graduated. She worked at the O'Brian Center and Wendy's where she obtained the position of Manager, she would remain a faithful employee until her health declined in 1996.

She loved her family, especially the children. One of her favorite things to do would be to load the children up and take them on outings to various places like: Chucky Cheese, the Beach and Skating. She had a soft spot for her boys, treating their friends as if they were her own. She would feed them, let them spend the night, loving them as if they were her own, her favorite past time was going to BINGO. She had a saying "Winning money is my thing but yelling BINGO is my game."
