

Mother

*God took the fragrance of a flower,
The majesty of a tree,
The gentleness of morning dew,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The beauty of the twilight hour,
The soul of a starry night,
The laughter of a rippling brook,
The grace of a bird in flight,
The tender care of an angel,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family's need,
Then God fashioned from these
Things a creation of no other,
And when His masterpiece was through,
He simply called it Mother.*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took his hand when I heard His call.
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found the peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee -
God wanted me now; He set me free.*

Aleda Leola (Block) Trebil was born on the eighth day of the second month of 1939. She was born to parents, Leo and Aleda (Hegge) Block at the Block family home Minnetonka Mills Township of Hennepin County, MN. Aleda attended country school until sixth grade at District #2 in Big Stone County and went on to attend high school at Ortonville Secondary. In December of 1946, the family moved from Minnetonka Mills to Eternal Springs Road, just north of Ortonville.

On October 27, 1960, Aleda was united in marriage with Richard "Dick" Trebil at St. John's Catholic Church in Ortonville. The two moved to Oregon in 1963 for a short time, then moved to Red Lodge, MT, and returned home to Ortonville in 1966. Along their travels, Aleda and Dick were blessed with four children and with 56 years of marriage.

Always a hard worker, Aleda worked as a waitress at Hilltop Café where she met Dick and she agreed to a date with him. She always said she was fortunate to be able to stay home with her children until they were teenagers. Aleda went to work as a cook at Laguna Beach and later worked as a dietary cook at Northridge Nursing Home in Ortonville. Along with raising her family, Aleda raised a fantastic garden. She and Dick grew apples in a small orchard, raspberries from a vast raspberry patch, along with cucumbers and tomatoes.

In her leisure time, Aleda loved to play cards, attending her garden, and mowing the lawn. She was always happy being on her lawnmower. Aleda was a wonderful cook and baker, and especially enjoyed cooking for her family. She was an avid seamstress, sewing many jean quilts and pillows for her grandchildren. Aleda found relaxation in being an animal lover whether it was playing with her dogs, watching the birds come to her many birdfeeders, or talking to the deer that would wander through her yard. She had a great sense of humor although she said people never understood her brand of humor. Aleda liked reading, going to garage sales, was a collector of many things, especially enjoyed spending time with her family or going to one of Scott's fish fries. She could walk along the beach for hours and loved walking with her dogs or her family.

Left to cherish Aleda's memory are her children: Karla (Scott) Roelke of Ortonville, MN; Richard (Norine) Trebil of Piqua, OH; Darci (Jared) Lee of Ahwatukee, AZ; and Daniel (Michelle) Trebil of East Grand Forks, MN; 10 grandchildren: Kelsie (John) Thomas, Mallory Roelke, Ryan Roelke, Dillon Trebil (Kristy Hickman), Cody (Leah) Trebil, Ethan Trebil, Eric Trebil, Georgia Lee, Owen Lee, and Tatum Lee; four great-grandchildren: Tucker and Shelby Thomas; and Harrison and Eloise Trebil; brother, Lee (Jose) Block; sister-in-law, Betty Paulsen; along with many nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death are her parents; husband, Dick in 2017; grandson, Keegan Roelke; and sisters: Elaine and Evelyn.
