

Acknowledgement

The family of Nicole Abbott wish to extend our sincerest appreciation to our many friends and family for all acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy and comfort shown during these hours of bereavement. Your generosity of giving and sympathetic understanding, has provided us with great strength, and aided us to lighten our heavy burden at this time. May God bless each of you.

Never Enough

Sometimes I know the words to say to give thanks for all you've done, but then they fly up and away as quickly as they come.
How could I possibly thank you enough, the one who makes me whole, the one to whom I owe my life, the forming of my soul?
The one who makes such sacrifices to always put me first,
who lets me test my broken wings, in spite of how it hurts.
Who paints the world a rainbow when it's filled with broken dreams, who explains it all so clearly when nothing is what it seems.
Are there really any words for this? I find this question tough.
Anything I want to say just doesn't seem enough.
What way is there to thank you for your heart, your sweat, your tears, for ten thousand things you've done for oh so many years.
For changing with me as I changed, accepting all my flaws, not loving 'cause you had to, but loving just because.
For never giving up on me when your wits had reached its end, for always being proud of me, for being my best friend.
And so I come to realize, the only way to say,
the only thank you that's enough is clear in just one way.
Look at me before you see what I've become.
Do you see yourself in me, the job that you have done?
All your hopes and all your dreams, the strength that no one sees, a transfer over many years, your best was to pass me.
Thank you for the gifts you give, for everything you do, but thank you, Mama, most of all for making dreams come true.

*Letter to my beloved daughter,
Nicole who I love, cherish and miss. Thank you for your love and years we spent together.
Momma is so proud of you and the woman you became. You brought me so much joy in my life. You are an amazing woman, a good mother and businesswoman Your love for others shines through for the world to see. Thank you for the gift you gave to me your daughter – Tailece.
Thank you, Father God.*

~ Reflections of Her Life ~

Nicole Michelle Abbott was born on December 7, 1977 in Kansas City Missouri to Linda Abbott and Joe Wheeler.

Nicole received her education in the Kansas City Missouri School District. She graduated from Center High School in 1996. Because of her love, compassion and desire to help others she proceeded to obtain a Certified Nursing Assistant License in November 2001. She worked for Ascend Hospice, again a testament to her commitment and dedication to others. One of her biggest accomplishments in life is being an inspiration to many. Another side of Nicole is her entrepreneurial spirit. She was known for her annual holiday baskets for Valentines Day, Mother's Day and Father's Day. Even while undergoing treatment for a very aggressive cancer, she was determined to finish her final Mother's Day basket. She loved to travel with time spent in Hawaii, Atlanta, Louisiana, Florida, Vegas, Arizona, Texas and the Bahamas. Nicole was also well known for her cheesecake, bacon spaghetti, banana pudding, and cornbread.

Nicole was never married; she was blessed with one child, a daughter – Tailece

Nicole departed this life on Saturday, July 2, 2022, at home surrounded by many loving family members and friends.

She leaves to cherish her memory, daughter, Tailece Hopkins; Mother Linda Abbott; Grandfather Claude Harris, Aunts Patricia Brown, Christina Henderson (Bell), Dorothy Williams (Patrick), Sandra Wheeler, Lillie Woods, Lisa Harris, and Stacie Edd; Uncles Terry Abbott, Robert Wheeler (Mary), Nathaniel Wheeler, and Claude Jr. and a host of cousins and many other relatives and friends.

There is one word that describes my Mother Nicole Abbott and that is "UNFORGETTABLE".
