

Blessed be the Memory of Orlo Baslington

Orlo is survived by his wife Barbara of Battle Lake; children Jill (Garry) Hart of Austin, Kathy (Jerry) Danielson of Long Prairie, and Julie Baslington of Fergus Falls; grandchildren Joshua (Nena) Hart, Kallie (David) Nunez, Marissa (Jamar Suggs) Hart and Cooper, Jordan (Michelle) Danielson and Maverick, and Kale Danielson.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Fred and Ina Baslington.

Orlo's faith in God was central to his life. He was an active member of Calvary Lutheran Church, being president of the congregation for many years. He was a current member of Calvary Free Lutheran Church in Fergus Falls. In his earlier years, Orlo enjoyed golfing, bowling and fishing. He liked attending concerts and watching sports, always cheering on the Minnesota Twins and Vikings. He was a life-long learner and had an affinity for reading newspapers, especially the Star Tribune. He cherished the time spent with his children and grandchildren.

2005, Orlo and Barb built their present home at the lake.

On August 1, 1965, Orlo married Barbara Johnson at Calvary Lutheran Church in Hendricks, Minnesota. They were blessed with three daughters; Jill, Kathy, and Julie. Orlo taught junior high speech and social studies at Hendricks Public Schools for a few years. He held the position of High School Principal at Hendricks Public Schools from 1964 until his retirement in 1997. He and his family enjoyed spending summers at their cabin on West Battle Lake. In Remembering the Life....

*"I have fought the good fight,
I have finished the race,
I have kept the faith.
Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness
which the Lord,
the righteous judge,
will award to me on that day."*

2 Timothy 4:7-8
