Pastor's Note

RESPONDING TO HANDICAPS

by Ramon V. Baldovino

As a pastor, I am always confronted with this question: "How should one deal with trials—handicaps, for example?" It is not an easy question and it doesn't have one answer. But from a topical collection of stories edited by James Hewett comes an illustration that can be helpful. It tells of two paraplegics:

One was Kenneth Wright, a high school football star and later, an avid wrestler, boxer, hunter, and skin diver. A broken neck sustained in a wrestling match in 1979 left him paralyzed from the chest down. He underwent therapy....But, apparently, the former athlete could not reconcile himself to his physical disability. He prevailed upon two of his best friends to take him in his wheelchair to wooded area, where they left him alone with a twelve-gauge shotgun. After they left, he held the shotgun to his abdomen and pulled the trigger. Kenneth Wright, twenty-four, committed suicide.

The second paraplegic...was Jim McGowan....at the age of nineteen, Jim was stabbed and left paralyzed from the middle of His chest down....He made the news when he made a successful parachute jump, landing on his target in the middle of Lake Wallenpaupack in the Poconos. Newspapers learned a number of things about Jim. He lives alone, cooks his meals, washes his clothes, and cleans his house. He drives himself in his specially equipped automobile. He has written three books, and he did the photography for our country's first book on the history of wheelchair sports.

I do not know if Jim McGowan became a Christian or not. But to Christians James, the brother of Jesus, wrote in his pastoral epistle, "My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing" (1:2-4). Choose Christ and choose a victorious life in Him!

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSES

As We Come To You In Prayer

Now, Dear Lord, as we pray, Take our hearts and minds far away,
From the press of the world all around, To Your throne where grace does abound.
May our lives be transformed by Your love, May our souls be refreshed from above.
At this moment, let people everywhere, Join us now as we come to You in prayer.

Almighty Father

Almighty Father, hear our prayer, and bless all souls that wait before Thee. AMEN.

We Have This Hope

We have this hope that burns within our hearts,
Hope in the coming of the Lord.
We have this faith that Christ alone imparts,
Faith in the promise of His word.
We believe the time is here, When the nations far and near Shall awake, and shout and sing Hallelujah! Christ is King!
We have this hope that burns within our hearts,
Hope in the coming of the Lord.
