Dear Darci,

Congratulations, you are now officially an Animal Energy® Level 1 Certified Practitioner!

We have reviewed your paperwork and feel you meet the skill level and professionalism we are looking for in an Animal Energy® Level 1 Certified Practitioner.

You will receive your printed certificate via mail shortly. Also, your logo (for use on the internet) is attached (Click Here). We encourage you to post word of your certification (with accompanying logo) on social media, to let others know of your accomplishment, and also to use it on your website. We have spent years building this brand and it is currently known in 52 countries.

As an Animal Energy® Level 1 Certified Practitioner we want to remind you that your certification allows you to use all of our material, techniques and systems in your work with clients but does not authorize you to share it, reprint for distribution, or teach it to others. Down the road we may offer trainings that will certify you to teach our material, and if we do, you will be the first to know.

Since the name Animal Energy® is trademarked for in person and distance healing, and you invested lots of your time and money to become certified, if you see other non-certified practitioners using that name, in any way shape or form, please let us know immediately. This will help us to uphold the quality and integrity of the work and your title. If you are unsure if they are certified or not, simply email us

(ClientCare@LynnMcKenzie.com) and we will check it out.

Lastly, whenever you use the name Animal Energy® in any of your correspondence, please insert the “®” symbol beside the “y” in energy. Failure to do so will breach our trademark.

Once again, congratulations!

To your Divine Power,

Lynn McKenzie
