

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of late Quovadios James Johnson wishes to express their sincere gratitude for all acts of kindness shown to them during their hour of bereavement. To Pastor Cornelius J. E. Lloyd, Associate Ministers, and the entire First African Baptist Church of East Savannah family, we thank you. We are also grateful for the comfort and dedication shown to us by Adams Funeral Home.

Floral Bearers

Usher & Friends

Interment

Woodville Cemetery

125 Spring Street

Savannah, Georgia 31408

Services entrusted to:

Adams Funeral Home, Inc.

510 Stephenson Avenue

Savannah, Ga 31405

Celebration of Life

For

Mrs. Quovadios James Johnson

Saturday, June 1, 2024, ~ 11 A.M.

First African Baptist Church of East Savannah

402 Treat Avenue

Savannah, Georgia, 31404

Officiating ~ Rev. Cornelius J. E. Lloyd, Pastor

Eulogist ~ Rev. Marvin L. Lloyd

Obituary

“Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.” – Matthew 5:16

Quovadis James Johnson was a beacon of light. She entered into eternal rest at Candler Hospital after a short illness on Wednesday, May 15, 2024. She was born December 15, 1954, to Ernest and Alice James. Her father, brother and her husband, Yamashita Johnson, preceded her in death.

A native of Savannah, GA, she attended Ramah Academy, Spencer Elementary School, and Richard Arnold High School. Quovadis moved to Washington, D.C. where she worked for the FBI for 25 years and FEMA for 15 years. As a pastime, she enjoyed acting in plays. and being a fashion model.

After retiring, Quovadis moved back to Savannah continuing to shine her light in the community. She volunteered as a daycare teacher in Washington and continued to volunteer as a daycare teacher upon her return. She also demonstrated a passion for helping others by distributing food to the elderly and the needy.

While in Washington, Quovadis was a dedicated and faithful member of Harvey Memorial Baptist Church. She served on the Usher Board for more than 30 years and as a Sunday School teacher. After returning home, she became a faithful member of First African Baptist Church of East Savannah.

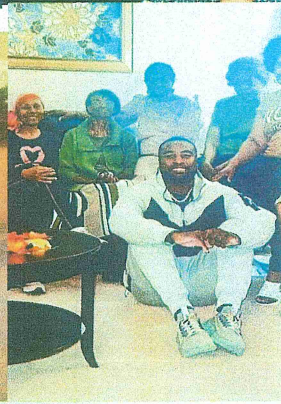

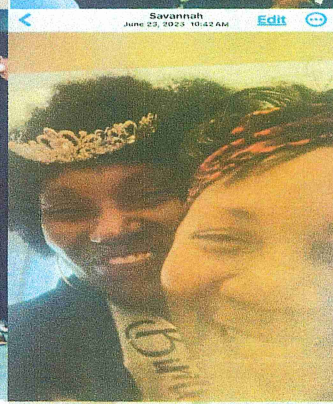

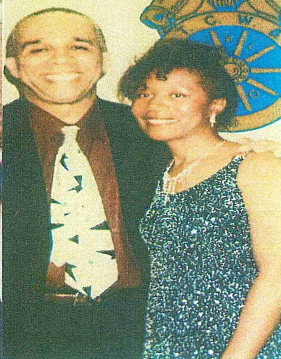

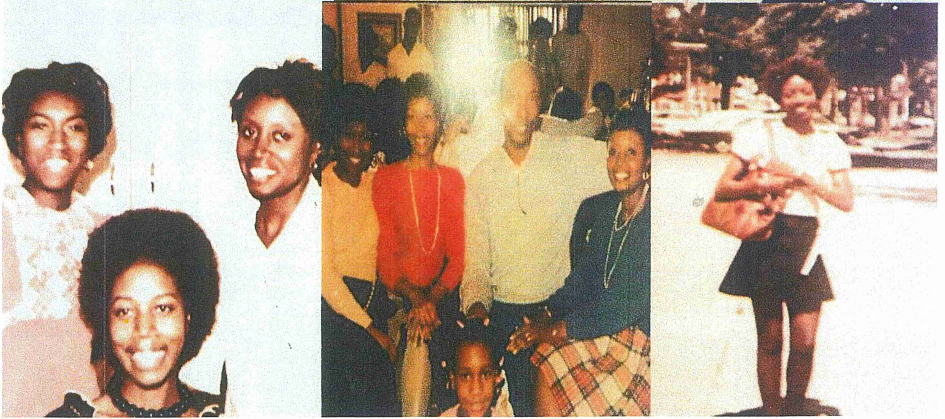

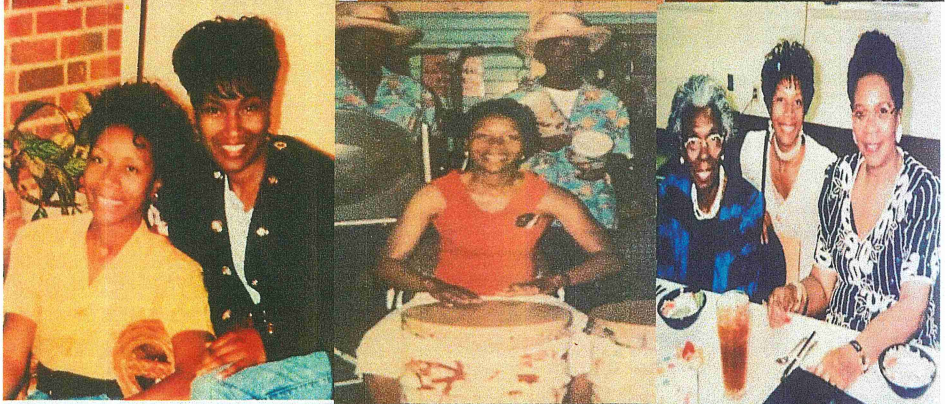

Quovadis leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Alice James Waldburg; a sister, Antionette DeLoach, Port Wentworth, GA; a niece, Corde' Catrina DeLoach and a nephew, Sgt. Booker T. Napoleon, III; five grand-nieces and nephews; step-father, David Waldburg; a beloved Aunt Glennie Williams; a God sent Aunt Bernice Grimes; a host of cousins and devoted friends in Savannah, GA, Washington, D.C., and New York, New York.

STANDING- Quovadis James, George Ann Wilder, Annette Stealey.
KNEELING- McVallina Byal.

.....Weeping may endure for a night,
But joy comes in the morning.

PSALM 30:5

Order of Service

Officiating Rev. Cornelius J. E. Lloyd

Prelude..... Rev. Jeffery Bynes

Processional with Last Glance ~ This little light

Solo..... “I Won’t Complain”Deaconess Beverly Moultrie

Old Testament..... Apostle Queen Esther Fenton

New Testament..... Rev. Dr. Thomas E, Williams

Prayers of Comfort....., Rev. Dennis L. Aikens

Poem.....Rev. Paul Burney

Tribute..... Ms. Priscilla B. Johnson

Expressions (Two Minutes Please)

As A Member..... Deacon Herbert Swain, Jr

As A Classmate..... Mrs. Carol Spencer Bailey

Solo...” Never Would Have Made It” ... Mrs., Charolette Hawkins-Joyner/ Mr. Emmett Ramsey Pianist

Acknowledgements.....Deaconess Betty L. G. Morgan

Obituary: Read Silently

Solo..... Dr. Itunu Ilesanmi

Eulogy..... Rev. Marvin Lloyd

Recessional..... “I’ll Fly Away”