AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We extend our sincerest appreciation for the kind expressions of sympathy, prayers, and love shown during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you.

HIS STORY

Paul Walker, Jr., the last child of the Paul and Harriet Walker, born October 17th, 1972 at Pennsylvania Hospital.

Paul affectionately known to family and friends as "Hajji", was a kind, comical, loved his sports and loved to eat.

Paul was educated in the public school system of Philadelphia. After completion, he began to work at various restaurants until his unforeseen medical issues. Those issues did not stop him; he continued to live the life he thought was right for him.

On Tuesday morning, January 30, 2024, God saw the road was too rough. The hills were hard to climb. So God closed, Paul's weary eyes, and whispered "Peace Be Thine."

Paul leaves to mourn his passing, his loving daughter, Jaylise and her mother, Keita Charles; sisters, Patricia and Paulette; brothers, William and Dwayne; four nephews, Andre, Travis, Robert, and Williams Jr.; five nieces, Jennifer, JAsmine, Brittany, Shantey and Destiny; aunts, Linda and Barbara; uncles, Hamid, Steve and Ronald; brothers-in-law, Travis and Andre; a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

THE FAMILY
