

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me,
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles, when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo,
Whispering softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times,
& bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When my life is done.

HARLEY DUMAS Life Story

Harley Lee Dumas, Jr. was born on November 10, 1954 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Harley Dumas, Sr. (Wadesboro, North Carolina), and the late Luretha Hickson (Barnwell, South Carolina). Harley attended public schools in Camden, New Jersey and Lawnside, New Jersey. After attending high school, Harley was employed in the maintenance field for several years. He worked for Landmark Apartments and other hotels and schools in the south Jersey area.

Harley was a musical connoisseur and history buff! Music was the soundtrack of his life. During his young adult years, Harley was a disc jockey who enjoyed dancing at discos and clubs. Harley loved taking long walks through downtown Camden and Cooper River Park while playing old school R&B, jazz, and club mix music over a speaker or headphones. During the summer, Harley avidly attended many outdoor concerts with his friends. Harley was known to share the history behind each song that he loved with others.

Harley was a friendly and kindhearted guy who was often willing to assist his family and friends in need. He protected his brothers, sisters, and family and would often check in by stopping by or calling them.

Harley will be mourned and missed by his brothers (Gregory Dumas and Zachary Dumas), stepmother (Vickie Horne), stepsister (Christine "Tammy" Lambert), son (Harley Dumas, III), daughter (Shanae Moore), grandchildren (Shalea Dumas, Treyshon Dumas, and Tatyana Dumas), and a host of cousins, nephews, nieces, great-grandchildren, and friends. Harley leaves us to join his beloved father, mother, brother (Bruce Hickson), stepsister (Wanda Hill), granddaughter (Brittney Leary), and nephew (Glenn Lewis), in heavenly rest!

Tribute to My Dad

Not, how did he die, but how did he live?
Not, what did he gain, but what did he give?

These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of his birth.

Nor what was his church, nor what was his creed?
But had he befriended those really in need?
Was he ever ready, with words of good cheer,

To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?
Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say,
But how many were sorry when he passed away?

Harley Dumas, III
