"Father, where shall I work today?"
 And my love flowed warm and free.
 Then He pointed out a tiny spot,
 And said, "Tend that for me."
 I answered quickly, "Oh no, not that!
 Why no one would ever see.
 No matter how well my work was done;
 Not that little place for me."
 And the word He spoke, it was not stern;
 He answered me tenderly:
 "Ah, little one, search that heart of thine.
 Art thou working for them or for me?
 Nazareth was a little place,
 And so was Galilee."
 -Meade McGuire

He is the most happy and successful in life whose interests are coupled with giving assistance to others and helping them find the way.

"The sign at the railroad crossing that warns us to STOP, LOOK, and LISTEN, could be a guide for us. STOP as we rush through life. LOOK for all the friendly, courteous things we can do, and all the little human needs we can fill. LISTEN to others and learn of their hopes and problems so that we will be able to contribute in little ways to their success and happiness."
 -Howard W. Hunter

*"To paraphrase Ralph Waldo Emerson, the most memorable moments in life are those in which we feel the rush of revelation."
 - Elder Jeffrey R Holland*
