The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life:
and I will dwell
in the house of the LORD for ever.

Judith Ann McGrath, 75, of Little Rock, Arkansas passed away August 31, 2024. She was born December 16, 1948, in Little Rock, Arkansas to the late Joe and Connie Bulmanski.

Judy is survived by her sons, Jeff McGrath and Erik McGrath; sister, Jane (Phillip) Baxter; brother, Tommy (Margaret) Bulmanski; nieces, Emily Smith, Anna Claire Bulmanski, Catherine Bulmanski ; nephews, Zach Bulmanski, Brady Bulmanski, and Jason Baxter; along with a host of family and friends.

Judy retired after 50 years from the Little Rock School District. She taught at Little Rock Parkview, Mount Saint Mary, and Southwest Junior High. Her students were incredibly important to her, and she kept up with many of them over the years.

Judy was a wonderful cook; her specialty was Polish chicken. She enjoyed spending time with her sons and had a very special bond with her nieces, nephews, and great nieces and nephews. Judy loved Elvis and listening to his music. She also found joy in traveling when she could and making memories. She was gearing up for another season of calling the Hogs!

Visitation will be held at 5:00PM on Thursday, September 5, 2024, with a rosary following at 6:30PM at Smith North Little Rock Funeral Home (1921 Main Street, NLR). Please visit www.smithfamilycares.com for the online obituary and guestbook.
