Obituary

Debra Anne Seabrooks was born in December 22, 1955 in Savannah, Georgia to Arlethia M. Duncan and Clarence Brown. She was a graduate of Richard Arnold High School and attended South College.

She was employed at Walmart in the Deli Department for over 10 years, and at Bea's Bonton, a family owned restaurant where she was known as "Blondie" for 30 years.

Debra transitioned into eternal rest on Friday, December 18, 2020 from her home with her children and siblings surrounding her. She was preceded in death by her parents Arlethia M. Duncan and Clarence Brown; one grandchild, Syheem Spaulding; and two brothers, Earl Brown and Isaac Brown.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories, her children, Katina (Rodney) Myers, Quanita Brown, Shedrick Spaulding, Jr., Nicky Brown, and Shantia Brown. She was a devoted and loving grandmother to 13 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild; her siblings, Melvin McCarr, Melinda Pope, Edward Duncan, Margaret Hill, Rosemary, and Jimmy Brown; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles.

*"If tears could build a stairway,
And memories a lane.
I'd walk right up to heaven,
And bring you home again."*

Ain't Nothing Like A Grandma's Love

Losing a love one can be hurtful, but to lose a grandparent of any sort is a different type of pain. A grandma's love will always be different from any other because we tend to love them differently from everyone else. We as the first grands will do what ever it takes to keep you smiling upon us. As the first grands we are the keepers of the closest memories that you have installed in us. You've installed something special in each one of us. You saw something in the three of us that no one else saw, But our grandma wasn't like any other grandma she showed lots of love and affection but the second that we stepped out of line that slipper came off with no hesitation. She showed tuff love but we all knew it was for the greater good. Now that your gone all we have is memories. From this day on we ask if you will now continue to guide us in the right direction. It's crazy that your gone who will I now share my secrets with? You weren't supposed to leave just yet but we understood your hurt and grief we're happy now that your no longer hurting.

*With love, your first grands
Rahnja, Raquel, and Rakeem Myers.*

You can shed tears that she's gone
Or you can smile because she lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
Or your heart can be full of the love she shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone,
Or you can cherish her moment and live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what she would want; smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

With Love, RayRay

Mama,

I still see your face before me
Your voice I long to hear
I miss and love you dearly
God knows I wish you were here
Tears fall freely from my eyes,
Like a river, filled with grief.
My only comfort now is that,
You're free from pain, you've found relief.

Missing you Mama
Your only beloved son,
Pooh

How can I say goodbye when my heart won't let you leave?
How can I live my life and you were the air I breathe?
How can I just move on when I'm falling apart?
How can I tell you that I love you again
And you will forever be in my heart.

Forever us Mama
Nicky

To Dede

This is something I never thought I would be writing/saying so soon, but as we put you to rest so soon I just wanted to say you were the best grandma a girl could ask for...you were my best friend, my rock, my girl, my heart, my core.

You were always there when I needed you. I swear you were the only person I could count on for anything, you watched me grow. For every praise dance, modeling show, ballet recital, cheer performance: you never missed not one. I would always look out into the audience to see your big, bright, beautiful smile. Now I am sad because I won't be able to see it for the most important one, that we've talked and planned about for about 17 years.....my graduation.

Now I know I HAVE to do it, just for you and to make you proud, Grandma.

I just wanted to thank you for all the lessons you've taught me, all those long talks, just for everything. You and Mama are the only people I look up to, especially when it came to my sisters. You know it was us 5 against the world. I promise to not let you or them down. I promise to help Mama take care of Ray and Lyric. I promise to be strong for US.

I wish I could just talk to you one more time, please.

I love you, we love you.

Lsyss

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears.
Remember all the laughter
We shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented,
That my life was worthwhile.
Knowing that I passed along the way,
I made somebody smile.
When walking down the street,
And you have me own your mind.
I'm walking in your footsteps,
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy,
Just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you,
Each morning, Noon and Night.

Expressions of Gratitude

The family of Debra Anne Brown Seabrooks acknowledges with sincere gratitude and appreciation the many cards, flowers, calls and other kindnesses extended by family and friends. May God continue to bless each of you.

I'm Always With You

So grieve me for a while,

If grieve you must,

Then let your grief

Be comforted by trust.

That it is only for a while

That we must part.

So treasure the memories

Within your heart.
