

Generations in Ministry

This Sabbath is an unusual day in that we have church and communion in two places today. We have traditional church at Piedmont Park with communion, and we are also offering the All Church Campout with communion there as well.

If you would like to just spend the day in the blessing of nature (take bug spray or you may be anti-blessed with some chigger bites as well), you may want to run on out to Woodland Acres with food to share for a Potluck meal at 1:30pm, good visiting and walking, the Adventurer Club Program in the afternoon, followed by vespers and singing in the evening around a campfire and games.

May you have a blessed and restful Sabbath, enjoying God's second book, your friends and family, and worshiping God together.

Prayer and Praise

Father, we praise You for Your goodness and ask for Your special intervention and care for us:

We are grateful for the wonderful fall weather and the adequate moisture.

We praise God for the building expansion coming along and making progress.

We pray for Fred Murray, Lolene Williams, Myra Mosher, Diane Salo, and Jason Williams for health and healing.

We pray for good success for the Benefit Concert at CVC that is raising funds for Adventist Frontier Missions to help the refugees in Iraq.

We pray all will have a fun and safe time at the All Church Campout this year.

We remember those who have lost loved ones and who are coming into the holiday season. We pray they will be comforted by good memories and the hope that God will someday return life to those who have passed away in the Lord and will in time wipe all tears from our eyes. Revelation 21 and 22.

We pray for those attending Celebrate Recovery as they look to Jesus to help them find better ways of living.

We remember our Pastoral Staff in prayer as they lead us in ministry, and bring the word of God to us each week. We also pray for their families.

We remember Eula Key in prayer for comfort at the passing of her Mother last week and for healing after eye surgery this week.

Message of Encouragement

“Since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus... Let us...”
Hebrews 10:19-25

Because Jesus gave His life for me, I can enter into the very presence of God. Therefore let us...

1. “draw near to God with a sincere heart and in full assurance of faith”
2. “hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess”
3. “consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds”
4. “do not give up meeting together”
5. “encourage one another”

Five things I can now do, because of Jesus:

1. I can come into God’s presence
2. I can know that what I have believed is in fact true
3. I can challenge my fellow journeymen toward two things
 - a. love
 - b. good deeds
4. I can come together with others to worship, pray, support each other and read God’s Word.
5. I can encourage others on their way to the kingdom.

Let us have a good day following the Lord.
