Message from Chris Mansell:

To all friends at DBC,

I want to say a sincere "thank you" to you all for your continued prayer support. I am due my 6th chemotherapy treatment later this month - praise the Lord.

Amazingly I have kept well and I just thank and praise the Lord for His love and care. Being able to stay at Quebec Hall has been a real blessing.

I continually thank and praise the Lord for His amazing provision.

I want to sincerely thank whoever kindly put a generous gift anonymously in the prayer box for me recently. I was overwhelmed and humbled. Thank you so much. May the Lord bless you.

Chris Mansell

From Lyn Milns: Having received the news that another very dear friend has had diagnosis and my niece Natasha is terminal, all I can do is pray and walk.

I am doing this challenge for my family members and friends, those who fought Cancer but didn't make it! and for those who fought Cancer and won the battle!

Plus those fighting Cancer now! Stay positive. It's going to be a challenge at 73yrs old but every step is being taken out of the love and memories, please support me and let's help get Cancer beaten for good.

Thanks for taking the time to visit my Giving Page.

NEARLY THERE to the start of our Lent Readings, ... which is the day after we have all enjoyed some lovely pancakes!

Ian G will outline more about the readings today, but in the meantime why not decide which group you will join to discuss the "treasures" you find in your readings.

... there are of course the small groups who already meet, (Connect or Thrive Groups) - if you would like to join one, then contact the Ministers via the Church Office.

.. or join Beckie Ward on Monday evenings, from 7.30pm, to explore the study by Journaling ... if you are not sure what Journaling is, then watch again the video explanation Beckie did during Lockdown.

Part 1: <https://youtu.be/1he50eNd3MQ> & part 2 <https://youtu.be/ZMyGlr-XUq0>

Final arrangements will depend on numbers attending, so speak to Beckie or Sue Gardner for more details

... or the Bible Book Club will meet each week at the church on a Thursday afternoon from 3.30 to 5.00pm.
