May the Work I've Done, Speak For Me

*May the works I've done speak for me.
When I'm resting in my grave,
There's nothing more to be said.
May the works I've done,
Let it speak for me*

*May the life I live, speak for me
The works I've done
Sometimes it seems so small,
it seems like I've done nothing at all.
Let it speak for me*

*The Works I've Done
Lord, I'm leaning and depending on You,
If I do right, you're gonna see me through.
May the works I've done,
Let it speak for me.*

Obituary

Joseph Alonzo Davis, affectionately known as "UNCLE JOE" was born on January 9, 1957, in Salem, New Jersey to Willie McBride and the late Thomasina Stephens. Joey passed away suddenly with his family by his side after a brief period of illness.

Joey received his secondary education through the Penns Grove and Camden City School System. He graduated from Camden High School in Camden, New Jersey. While in high school, he was a track Star and coached the "All Girls' Team." Joey found a way to further his education at Cheyney University in Pennsylvania, earning his Bachelor Degree in Business.

Joey accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior many years ago. His Tag-Line when hanging up from the phone was, "I love you and God bless you."

He worked as the Director of Operations for DARE Academy in Camden, New Jersey, until he passed. He was very dedicated to his job, which he called his, "Wife". Joey worked at Job Corps where he was a motivational speaker to the inner-city youth, teaching them how to live a better life or how to make better choices in life. Joey also worked in Food Services as a Manager overseeing many locations most of his career.

Joey was a loyal and dependable man, with many, many, excellent qualities. He made everyone feel important -- whether they were big or small, everyone was treated the same and were all special to him.

Throughout his life, Joey went through many things, but he always remained humble and wore a smile.

Joey is predeceased by his mother, Thomasina, stepfather, Dennis, Sr., daughter, Lavincey "Sheaky", son, Joseph A. Davis, Jr. "JD", sisters, Sherrie, Sandra Jean, and Diane, brothers, Willie, Carther, Kernell, Freddie, and Dennis, Aunt Pauline and Uncle Butch.

Joey leaves to cherish his memories, his father, Willie McBride, (2) sons, Rakim, Sr., "Rocky" and Mahaaj, "MJ", (1) daughter, Kamia, (5) grandchildren, Nyiasa, Rakim Jr., Mia, Zion, and Josiah, (5) sisters Glendora, Almetta, Denise, Roslyn, and Mardivon, and (6) brothers Dennis Jr., Marc Thomas, Robert Matthew, Cornell, Nathan, and Matt, aunts and uncles and a host of nieces, great-nieces, nephews, great-nephews, many, many cousins, a special cousin, Elkinah Smith, and a very special friend, Anthony "Man Cakes" Ways.

"Uncle Joe", you left us way too soon and you will always be remembered.

We Love You!!!

Loving Submitted, The Family
