UP COMING EVENTS

Over the past year, teachers and students have adapted to an ever-changing environment. While school has been different, learning has continued. More importantly, the spiritual heart of Adventist Education has continued to thrive, even under such difficult circumstances.

Tune in online as the Education team shares stories from our schools. The broadcast will also feature the premiere of a virtual choir of Oregon Conference students, recorded and arranged by Zachary Parks. Participants will also have opportunity to contribute to the K-12 Scholarship fund that will help even more students experience the blessing of Adventist Education.

The broadcast happens live at 6:00 pm on the Oregon Conference YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/oregonadventists and our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/OregonAdventists.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

You Can Watch PAA's Virtual Week of Worship!

For the first time ever, Portland Adventist Academy parents and far-away-family were able to hear students share their love for Jesus during Student Week of Worship. Daily chapels were all virtual so that means you can be blessed by them, too! These student messages and music can be enjoyed at <https://paasda.org/news/paa-virtual-week-of-worship/>

PAA Offers Quality In-Person Education

If your child is currently in distance-learning at their high school and are struggling academically, emotionally, or spiritually, please consider transferring to Portland Adventist Academy. Small class sizes allow teachers more opportunity for quality connection time and offer better academic attention to help struggling OR advanced students alike. Teachers intentionally bring Christ-centered and character-driven values into their classrooms and daily connect them to their personal loving God and Creator. You can schedule an In-Person or Virtual tour HERE (<https://paasda.org/admissions/>) or explore all we have to offer on the new PAA Discover Page HERE.
