AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS - 2020

DAY THREE - WRAP UP

The Australian National Championships wrapped up at the National Squash Centre at Carrara today. This event combines Men's and Women's PSA players battling for PSA points and Premier, A, B, and C graded events.

The Women's final contested by Amelia Martin and Melissa Martin started out fairly straight forward with Amelia staying in front most of the match. Melissa came out strong in the third game trying to up the pace taking an early lead, but Amelia adjusted and took back control to finish the match in 3 games claiming the Australian National Championship title for the second time (15 years after the first) 11-7, 11-7, 11-7 (17 min).

In the repeat final from the Gold Coast PSA Satellite event 3 weeks ago, top seed Nicholas Calvert again proved too strong for Solayman Nowrozi claiming the Australian National Championship title for the first time. The match had plenty of long rallies and had the crowd on the edge of their seats at times but Calvert again finished it in 3 games 11-7, 11-5, 13-11 (42 min).

DAY TWO WRAP UP

It was a massive day for the Australian National Championships at the National Squash Centre at Carrara.

The great story of the day was created when sisters-in-law Amelia Martin and Melissa Martin took out the two higher-seeded opponents each to claim their place in a surprise final match up.

Craig Stewart - Seize the Light | Photography

Queensland local Craig Stewart has been a tremendous asset to Squash Australia in the running of its events in recent years through his brilliant user of photography.

Craig contributes countless hours during Queensland-based Squash events taking photos of players on court right across the weekend, editing and then uploading them to social media.

Craig's work has almost single-handedly boost the profile of Squash in Australia and we are thrilled to have him as a dedicated volunteer.
