Reflections Of His Life

Haston Doc Allison Jr. was born on December 1, 1956 in San Antonio, Texas to Haston Doc Allison Sr. and Freddie Bell Allison.

Haston was educated at Central High School in Kansas City, Missouri until the 11th grade before he enlisted in the United States Army where he completed his GED. While enlisted in Army, Haston was a military policeman and served in Germany and Korea from 1976-1981. After serving in the military, Haston returned home to Kansas City and worked as a chef on the rooftop at Alameda Plaza and at Boston Seafood Market in Downtown Kansas City.

Though Haston never married or had any children of his own, he was a proud uncle and great-uncle to a host of nieces and nephews. Haston enjoyed traveling and spending time with his family during reunions and holidays.

Haston departed this life on January 17th, 2024. Haston's father, Haston Doc Allison Sr., and brothers, Boyde K. Allison, Shelton H. Allison, John L. Allison, and Roger Allison; and Sister, Laverne Adams preceded him in death.

LET ME GO

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me but let me go.*
