

I BELIEVE IN FARMING

I believe a man's greatest possession is his dignity and that no calling bestows this more abundantly than farming.

I believe hard work and honest sweat are the building blocks of a person's character.

I believe that farming, despite its hardships and disappointments, is the most honest and honorable way a man can spend his days on this earth.

I believe my children are learning values that will last a lifetime and can be learned in no other way.

I believe many of the best things in life are indeed free: the splendor of a sunrise, the rapture of wide open spaces, the exhilarating sight of your land greening each spring.

I believe true happiness comes from watching your crops ripen in the field, your children grow tall in the sun, your whole family feel the pride that springs from their shared experience.

I believe when a man grows old and sums up his days, he should be able to stand tall and feel pride in the life he's lived.

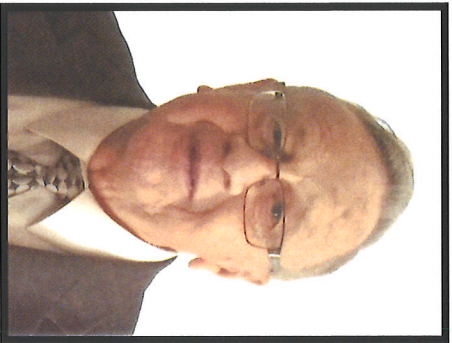

I believe in farming because it makes all this possible.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

MARVIN LUNDEBY

FEBRUARY 14, 1930 ~ OCTOBER 28, 2023

Marvin Earl Lundeby was born February 14, 1930, to Henry and Janetta (Baker) Lundeby of Osnabrock, ND. He attended school in Osnabrock and graduated in 1948. After completing school, he enlisted in the Air Force from 1951 to 1955, during the Korean War where he attained the rank of Airman-First Class, and then went on to attend NDSSS in Wahpeton, ND. Upon returning to Osnabrock, Marvin joined the family farm with two of his brothers. He was united in marriage to Jeannette Jacobson on November 18, 1961, and they made their home in Osnabrock and raised their two sons.

Farming was Marvin's life. After farming with his brothers, his sons began farming with him as they got older. His grandsons also joined when they were old enough. Even after he retired, he was still part of the farm from giving rides to and from the field or bringing out pop and cookies for a visit to see how things were going. The farm meant everything to him. Marvin was also a member of the Knights of Pythias where he served as Chancellor Commander and as the Grand Chancellor of the Domain of North Dakota. He served the Dove Lutheran Church as secretary and trustee and sang in the church choir and men's choir. He was also on the board of directors for the North Dakota State Barley Show for many years.

Marvin and Jeannette moved into the Osnabrock Community Living Center in the spring of 2016 where they made new friends and enjoyed visits from old friends and family.

Surviving Marvin are his wife, Jeannette; two sons: Steven and David (Kristine) of Osnabrock, ND; grandchildren: Luke and Christopher of Osnabrock, ND, and Hannah of Grand Forks, ND; brother Curt (Pat) of Sioux Falls, SD; and sister Eileen Fahmland-er of Fargo, ND. Preceding him in death are his parents and siblings: Cecil, Arnold, Kenneth, Vivian, Adylene, and Evelyn.

Marvin passed away Saturday, October 28, 2023, at Osnabrock Community Living Center at the age of 93.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Thursday, November 2, 2023 ~ 2:00 p.m.

Osnabrock Community Living Center

Osnabrock, ND

CLERGY

Pastor Shilice Larsen

READER

Maureen Smith

MUSIC

“The Old Rugged Cross”

“Borning Cry”

“Great is Thy Faithfulness”

HONORARY CASKET BEARERS

All of Marvin's Friends and Neighbors

MILITARY HONORS

NID National Guard Military Honors Team

INURNMENT AT A LATER DATE

Union Cemetery

Osnabrock, ND