

I Heard Your Voice in the Wind Today

*I heard your voice in the wind today
And turned to see your face;
The warmth of the wind caressed me
As I stood silently in place.*

*I felt your touch in the sun today
As its warmth filled the sky;
I closed my eyes and for your embrace
And my spirit soared high.*

*I saw your eyes in the window pane
As I watched the falling rain;
It seemed as each raindrop fell
It quietly said your name.*

*I held you close in my heart today
It made me feel complete;
You may have died... but you are not gone
You will always be a part of me.*

*As long as the sun shines...
The wind blows...
The rain falls...
You will live on inside of me forever
For that is all my heart knows.*

Obituary

It is with great sadness we say good-bye to our beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother at the age of 99. We are so grateful to have had her in our lives to appreciate her wisdom, calm demeanor and incredible memory. We will miss her loving smile.

Marit Grytbak Danielson was born in Norway on 19 April 1924, to Kari & Mikkell Mickelson. Mrs Mickelson emigrated from Norway in August 1930, arriving with her children in Halifax, Nova Scotia to join her husband Mikkell who was already in Canada. The Mickelson family homesteaded in Dalton, Saskatchewan where Marit attended school, learning English while being totally immersed.

Marit married Harvey Danielson in October 1942. Together they farmed and raised 9 children: Marlin (deceased April 2020), Elaine (husband Julien deceased July 2007), Jeanette, Allan (Laverne), Frances (deceased Nov 1975), Donna (Kevin), Dennis (Gaylene), Sharon, Wayne (Rhonda). Marit was predeceased by her husband Harvey August 2010. She remained living on the farm by herself until 2023, when her children finally convinced her to move to Assisted Living in Tisdale.

Marit was a proud grandmother of 19, and great-grandmother of 33 children whom she especially enjoyed.

She was an avid quilter, baker, sewer, knitter and gardener. Watching TV curling and afternoon soap operas were a hit with her as well as an occasional cribbage game. Marit particularly liked baking her native Norwegian desserts and foods and inspired her daughters & grand-daughters to carry on the tradition.

Marit was predeceased by her only sister Ragnhild, and her five brothers Magnar, John, Ole, Kaare (Mike) and Conrad.
