

*Surrounded by Your glory
What will my heart feel?
Will I dance for You Jesus
Or in awe of You be still?
Will I stand in Your presence
Or to my knees, will I fall?
Will I sing hallelujah?
Will I be able to speak at all?
I can only imagine!*

During a time like this we realize how much our Friends
really mean to us.
Your expression of Sympathy
will always be remembered.

In Loving Memory of Donald Jack Brown
November 12, 1956 - July 28, 2023

Don't think of him as gone away -
his JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN, life holds so many facets - this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth
AND COMFORT
where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

In the Hearts And think of him as living of those he touched For nothing loved is ever lost -
And he was loved so much.
- Ellen Brenneman

Mr. Donald Jack Brown, 66, of Hartwell, husband of Brenda Brown, passed away on Friday, July 28, 2023.

Born in Atlanta on November 12, 1956, he was a 1974 graduate of Elbert County High School and a member of Harmony Baptist Church. Donald was retired from Henry & Henry Trucking Company after spending decades in the transportation industry. He had a heart of gold and would do anything for anybody. Donald's outgoing personality was as big as his heart, and he was always the life of the party everywhere he went. His humor and quick wit made it impossible not to enjoy being with him.

Surviving, in addition to his wife of 48 years, Brenda, are his son and daughter-in-law, Chris and Kristal Brown of Clemmons, NC; grandchildren: Cameron Brown and Ryan Brown, both of Clemmons, NC; mother, Sara Frances Payton Brown of Elberton; siblings: Norma and Vernon Norman of Elberton, David and Denise Brown of Greenwood, SC, Libby and Ricky Rochester of Belton, SC, and Randy and Carol Elliott of Dallas, GA; special nephew, Stan Linker of Anderson, SC; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives. He had a brother-like bond with Donnie and Anita Hudson, and their family.

He is preceded in death by his father, Jack Brown; son, Scott Brown; and special brother-in-law, Jimmy Linker.

A time of visitation celebrating Donald's life will be held on Monday, July 31, from 5:00-7:00p.m. at Berry Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his memory to University Blood and Cancer Center, 3320 Old Jefferson Road, Building 700, Athens, GA 30607.

Berry Funeral Home & Crematory of Elberton is respectfully in charge of arrangements for Mr. Donald Jack Brown.

Honor Loving Memory

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23
